All Things Live Together

by Lill Pluta

Rivers fill with raindrops.

Grassy meadows bloom.

Up above the mountaintops,

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

badgers, snakes, and hares.

Creatures in the woodlands,

creatures in the sky,

creatures in the streams and fields.

creep, and swim and fly.

All Things Live Together

by Lill Pluta

1.	The poet	classifies	creatures in	this poem	into three	categories.	What are	they?
----	----------	------------	--------------	-----------	------------	-------------	----------	-------

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

- 4. What is the poet describing in the last line of the poem?
  - a. which animals live in the woodland
  - b. how many animals live together
  - c. the different ways animals move
  - d. the many different places animals live

ANSWER KEY

All Things Live Together

by Lill Pluta

1. The poet classifies creatures in this poem into three categories. What are they?

