

Name: _____

The Race

by Liana Mahoney

I'm running a race!
It's a game I play –
A game for sun-lit
Summer days.

My heart is pumping.
Will I win this race?
My legs are flying
In a high-speed chase.

I'm running out,
My running slows.

He slows down, too.
I think he knows...

I just can't catch him.
I admit defeat.
My shadow's so fast,
He can't be beat!

Name: _____

The Race

by Liana Mahoney

1. Who is the boy in the poem racing against?

2. Which of these statements is probably true about the race in the poem?

- a. The boy is a slow runner. b. It is impossible for the boy to win the race.
c. The

3. Why doe

4. Do you think the boy really expected to win the race? Why or why not?

5. List four pairs of rhyming words the poet uses in this poem.

_____ and _____, _____ and _____

_____ and _____, _____ and _____

Name: _____

The Race

by Liana Mahoney

1. Who is the boy in the poem racing against?

The boy is racing against his shadow.

2. Which of these statements is probably true about the race in the poem? b
- a. The boy is a slow runner. b. It is impossible for the boy to win the race.
- c. The boy gets tired quickly. d. The boy will probably win next time.

3. Why does the boy race his shadow?

The boy races his shadow because he knows he can't win.

re no

4. Do you think the boy really expected to win the race? Why or why not?

(Answers will vary.) Possible answer: The boy probably knew he could not win a race against his shadow because he has played this game before. He is probably running just for fun.

5. List four pairs of rhyming words the poet uses in this poem.

race and chase, ahead and instead,

slows and knows, defeat and beat

Note: You may also want to accept play and day(s)