

Name: _____

Say Cheese!

by Ruth Donnelly

I love to use Mom's camera.

Can I, Mom? Oh, please?

I want a picture of these bugs.

That butterfly! Those bees!

I took a hundred photographs

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

I got some snapshots of my friends,

Ella, Jack, and Will.

And now I'm taking one of YOU--

Ready, now? Hold still!

Yes, I love taking photographs,

It really is a breeze--

'Cause when I take the pictures,

I don't have to say cheese!

Name: _____

Say Cheese!

by Ruth Donnelly

1. Name four people who had their picture taken in the poem.

_____

2. Line 14 of the poem says, "It really is a breeze."

What does this expression mean?

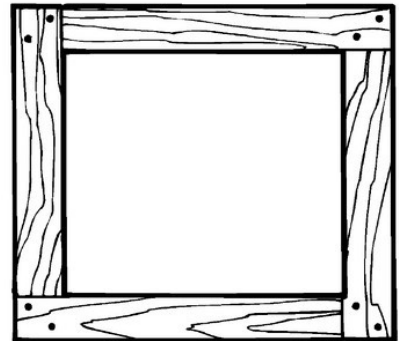

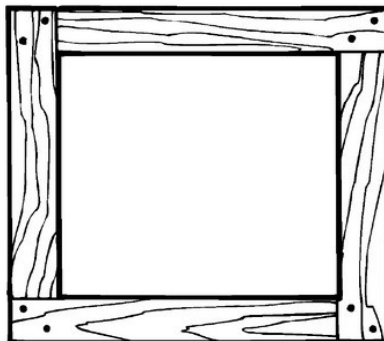

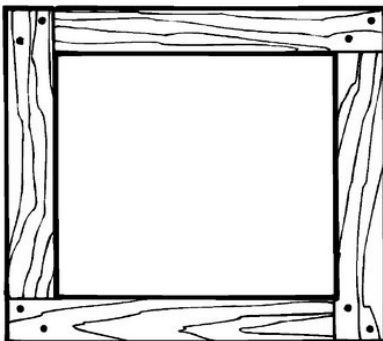

- a. It takes a long time.
- b. It is fun.
- c. It is easy.

- 3.

- c. She loved having her picture taken thirty times.
- d. She did not really enjoy having her picture taken thirty times.

4. Draw three different photographs that were taken by the child in the poem.
Below each frame, tell who or what is in each picture.

ANSWER KEY

Say Cheese!

by Ruth Donnelly

1. Name four people who had their picture taken in the poem.

Ella, Jack, Will, mother

2. Line 14 of the poem says, "It really is a breeze."
What does this expression mean?

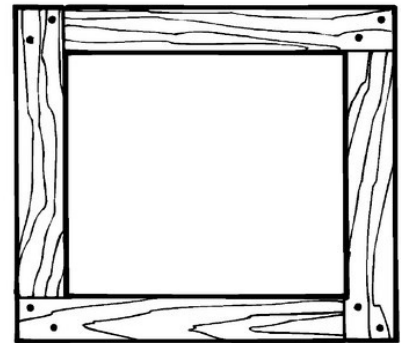

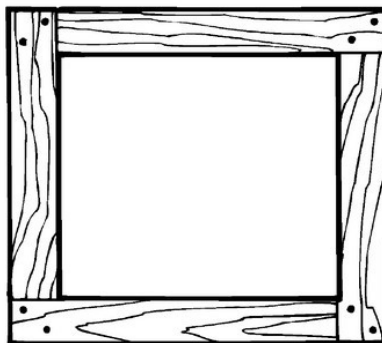

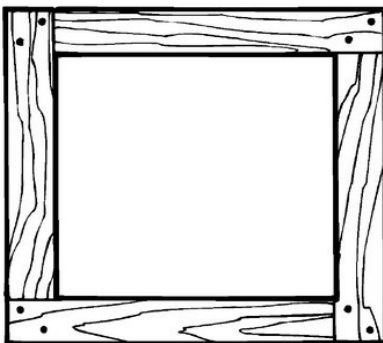

- a. It takes a long time.
- b. It is fun.
- c. It is easy.

- 3.

- c. She loved having her picture taken thirty times.
- d. She did not really enjoy having her picture taken thirty times.

4. Draw three different photographs that were taken by the child in the poem.
Below each frame, tell who or what is in each picture.

Illustrations may include picture of bugs, butterfly, bees, mother, friends, or self